

Please do NOT allow people to start using their cell phones on the airlines. Communication with stewards and personal privacy are difficult enough as it is now. Think of the disruption to people trying to use their lap tops to do business. Two hundred people babbling away on their cell phones for up to 10 hours is appalling. Thank you.